

LOCATION: London & The South East
PHONE: 01342 834 624

ACCOUNTS DIRECTOR STEPHEN WATTS

Stephen Watts is a Chartered Management Accountant with the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and holds a CIMA Members in Practice Certificate. He is committed to providing more than just a set of numbers, but to add value to the business through over 20 years of experience gained in the industry.

Steve qualified as a CIMA accountant in 1995 and has since gained experience in the property sector; 3 years with a major housebuilding Plc, 2 years in the serviced apartment sector, 4 years managing a large, fund owned, property investment portfolio and 9 years in property development with experience in JV's, off-shore companies and trusts. Also, he has strong commercial financial exposure and proven hands-on experience in all aspects of finance

Financial Strategy

Helping to optimise the cost and efficiency of your businesses finances

Management Accounts

Helping develop management information on a regular basis and assisting you in running your business.

Start-up Businesses

Helping your business through initial registration through developing future growth

Using his experience, Steve, along with the Merranti Accounting team, can assist business with their management accounts, VAT and Tax Returns, Payroll, and along with other services. Quarterly management.

By implementing one, or multiple of our consulting programs, Merranti Consulting has proven success by guiding businesses to success. We deliver Business Solutions to our customers by providing operational and strategic support.